The Clinical Faculty Award for Excellence in Community Practice Teaching recognizes Clinical Faculty members throughout British Columbia who have demonstrated excellence in teaching and made an educational impact in a local community.

NOMINATION PROCESS:

This award is open to all Clinical Faculty members appointed in the Faculty of Medicine who have demonstrated excellence in teaching in a community practice setting and made an educational impact in a local community. Nominees must hold an active Clinical Faculty appointment at the time of nomination.

Nominations can be made by any two Clinical or Full-Time Faculty members, medical students, residents or any other students in a clinical program within the Faculty of Medicine that involves clinical teaching. A signed nomination form (attached) should be accompanied by a brief citation for use at the Awards Ceremony, a letter from the nominators, letters of support, and a summary of peer and student evaluations during the past 5 years. Nominators will complete all documentation and submit the completed nomination package to the Dean. After checking for eligibility and completeness, the Dean will forward dossiers to the Adjudication Committee.

Nominations must be submitted to the Dean of Medicine no later than 4:00pm on Friday, May 5, 2017 (strict deadline).

NOMINATION GENERAL GUIDELINES

The Adjudication Committee will resolve questions concerning eligibility. An Award may not be granted every year. The identities of the nominees will not be made public unless they win the award. Decisions made by the Adjudication Committee are final and may not be appealed. Posthumous awards will not be made. Nominators should not expect staff members of the Dean’s Office or Adjudication Committee to assist with the preparation of a nomination beyond general advice concerning the regulations and proper forms to use; nor will they offer opinions as to a nomination’s chance of success.

JUDGING CRITERIA: (to be addressed in the nomination letter)

Nominee has made an educational impact in a local community.
Nominee’s excellence in teaching is evidenced by evaluations of students and/or residents and/or peers.
